NUMB. 3110

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1744

arrived a Mail from Holland, and another from Flanders.

Peterburgh, January 24. O. S.

ER Imperial Majesty has approved the Preliminaries of Accommodation agreed on between the Courts of Stockholm and Copenhagen. A few Days before her Departure from hence, she caused a Declaration, to the following Purpose to be made to the Foreign Ministers residing here; viz. That she had no Intention to give Umbrage to any Court; and that she was purely with a View to restoring the Peace of Europe, having always a sincere Desire to perform her Duty, and support her Allies; but being withheld by the French, as if some Systematical War was on the Carpet with this Court; whereas no Treaty, at this Juncture, negotiating between the Courts, but a Treaty of Commerce. The Affair of the Marquis de Botta is in a Train of Accommodation; the Interposition of their Britannick and Prussian Majesties; the grand Point now in question is, (if any) Satisfaction the Queen of Hungary will give to the Emperor, the Grand Duke set out on the 20th, at Four in the Afternoon, for Moscow, intending to travel slowly, on account of his Health. His Imperial Highness was followed, on the 21st, by the Czarina; who proposes to follow him on the 22nd, or To-morrow at farthest.

St. Petersburg, January 31. O. S. His Swedish Majesty taking the Diversion of Bear Hunting; but we are informed he designs to be in Town on Thursday or next. Yesterday Six Dalecarlians, viz. Gustavus Schinner Per Anderson, Holberts Anders Ericsson, Anders Marzon, Gisslar Eric Hagson, Carl Beronius, who were the Chiefs and Ring-leaders of the Rebellion which happened last Summer, were beheaded at the usual Place of Execution, without the Gate of this Town. The first, viz. Gustavus Schinner, had his Right Hand cut off, before he was beheaded, and his Body was afterwards cut into four pieces, and laid on Wheels near the Gallows.

St. Petersburg, February 7. The King has made a new Commission of General Officers, which occasions some Alteration in the Council of State, will be sent to Stockholm, with the Title of Envoy Extraordinary from his Majesty to the King of Sweden. This is of very great Importance to all Europe, as the North, being on the Carpet with the Crown of Britain, Baron de Solenthal, now at his Council, has received Orders to set out immediately for Stockholm, in order to resume the Functions of his Ministry, as Ambassador from his Danish Majesty.

St. Petersburg, February 1. His Majesty has lately dispatched Orders for augmenting his Troops with two Battalions, and every Day directing fresh Supplies of Forces towards Nice, where we have already a great Army of Troops, and doubt not giving such a Reception to the French, as will cure them of their Desire to penetrate this Way into Italy. It is certain, that their Soldiers are extremely averse to the Expedition; 600 Men deserted during their March; there are upwards of 3000 in their Hospitals; and we are well assured, they have not in all above 10000 Men. The Fleet of Transports assembling on the French Coast, consists, unquestionably, of 800 Sail, and the French Troops that are to march into Savoy to replace the Spaniards marched from thence, amount, it is said, to 30,000 Men. Our Forces are in perfect Health, and in high Spirits.

St. Petersburg, February 12. The Duke of Artemberg has been in close Conference with our Ministers, and is to set out for London, in order to concert, with the Government of Great Britain, the necessary Operations of a Campaign. Vast Magazines are raising in the State of Bavaria, especially about Ingolstadt. Orders have been lately sent for reinforcing the Army in the North, and it is certain, that the utmost Efforts will be made in order to put a speedy End to the War there. The Duke of Artemberg will speedily set out for Berlin; and it is in case Count Dohna is recalled from hence, that the Russian Majesty will send thither the Count de Mon-

Berlin, February 18. Yesterday Count Seckendorff had his Audience of Leave of the King; who, as a Testimony of Respect for his Person, made him a Present of a Ring, worth 10,000 Florins; but at the same time acquainted him, that if the Emperor would resolve not to introduce, for the future, any Foreign Troops into the Empire, it would be extremely for his Interest; and, of all others, the most efficacious Method to bring about a general Peace; that, by this Means, he would undoubtedly conciliate the Affection of all the Princes and States of the Germanick Body; that his Majesty, in his Electoral Capacity, would support, to the utmost, the Prerogatives inseparable from the Chief of the Empire; and would most willingly, and most warmly, interpose his good Offices with the Court of Vienna.

Hague, February 25. Baron Boetzelser, one of the Nobles of the Province of Holland, and Commissioner of the Admiralty in the College of Amsterdam, is appointed by their High Mightinesses to go as Minister Extraordinary of the Republic to the British Court; and that Gentleman is making the necessary Preparations for his Journey thither. The Duke of Artemberg is soon expected here in his Way to England. His Journey has been delayed upon Account of the Death of his Mother.

General Post-Office, London, February 8, 1744.

HEREAS the Post-Boy, going out with the West Mail from this Office, was this Morning, between Five and Six o'Clock, assailed on the Highway at the Staling Place, on the other Side of Turnham-Green, by a single Highwayman, who took the said Post-Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags; The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a middle-sized Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head and he rode on a Sorrel Horse with a White Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and made off for Aylesbury, the Oxford Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers, will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelocke, Secretary.

St. James's, February 18. This Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London, waited on his Majesty with the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, having heard, that Attempts are forming by the common Disturbers of the Peace and Tranquillity of Europe, in Favour of a Popish Pretender, to interrupt that Happiness we thankfully enjoy under your Majesty's Government, humbly beg Leave to take this earliest Opportunity, to express our greatest Concern for, and Abhorrence of this Indignity intended against your Majesty and these Kingdoms.

We have no Reason to doubt, but that, by the Blessing of God on your Majesty's Arms, our Enemies will be disappointed in their Expectations, (as your Majesty's Subjects must be too sensible of the Blessings of Liberty, Property, and the free Exercise of their Religion, which they enjoy under your most auspicious Rule, to exchange them for a Certain, Arbitrary, and Tyrannical Government; so the Loyalty and Unanimity of your faithful Subjects, will greatly tend to discourage these desperate Endeavours, to destroy and subvert your excellent Constitution.) We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty, of our firm and sincere Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, and our present happy Establishment in Church and State; and that no Endeavours of ours shall, (even at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes,) be wanting to frustrate these Attempts, to the Prejudice of both, and to secure the Laws and Liberties of this Country, and the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's most Illustrious House, to latest Generations. To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I take very kindly this seasonable Mark of your Duty and Affection to me. The City of London may always depend upon my Protection and Favour; and I have the firmest Confidence, that you will exert your Authority upon this Occasion for the Security of the City and the Preservation of the publick Peace, and for the Support of my Government.

They were received very graciously, and all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand; and his Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on the Right Hon. Robert Westley, Esq; Lord Mayor, Mr. Sergeant Simon Urline, Recorder, Mr. Alderman Daniel Lambert, Mr. Alderman Robert Willmott, Mr. Sheriff Robert Ladbroke, and Mr. Sheriff William Calvert.
